Numb. 3353

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday Decem. 27. to Thursday Decem. 30. 1697.

Kensington, Dec. 28.

THE following Addreſs was preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Pury Cust, accompanied by ſeveral other Gentlemen, and Introduced by the Lord Great Chamberlain of England, Lord-Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Lincoln.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Humble Addreſs of the Custos Rotulorum, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Lincoln.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſties Happy and moſt Loyal Subjects, do with unexpreſſible Joy and Gratitude, Congratulate Your Majeſties ſafe arrival to this Your Kingdom, who after having with undaunted and unparallel'd Courage and Reſolution, and indefatigable Care expos'd Your Royal Perſon in a hazardous and tedious War, have by Your wiſe Conduct procur'd a glorious Peace, by the means whereof You have not only given us a Proſpect of being a Rich and Flouriſhing Nation, but have alſo ſhewn Your Self a Father to all Europe as well as Your own People.

Great Sir, As we owe to You the preſervation and continuance of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, ſo we beſeech Your Majeſty to give us leave upon this occaſion to repeat and renew the Obligation wherein we are already mutually bound to each other in our late Aſſociation; And we do again Solemnly promiſe and aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will with the utmoſt hazard of all that is dear to us, ſtand by one another in the Defence and Support of Your Sacred Perſon, together with Your Lawful and Rightful Title to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, againſt any Perſon whatſoever, that ſhall pretend to have any Right thereunto, and in oppoſition to all Your Foreign and Domeſtick Enemies.

Moſt Gracious King, May Your Reign over us be Long and Proſperous, and as Impartial Hiſtory muſt in after Ages juſtly give You a Character above the greateſt of Heroes, ſo may the Great Almighty God (after Your Peaceable Enjoyment of a long and healthful Life in Your Earthly Kingdom) place You on an Eternal and more Glorious Throne in His Heavenly Dominion.

THE following Addreſs was preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Ormond.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty William the Third, by the Grace of God of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The Humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny in Your Majeſties Kingdom of Ireland.

WE Your Majeſties moſt Faithful, Dutiful, and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Citizens of Your Majeſties ſaid City of Kilkenny, were altogether tranſported with exceſſive Joy when we received the Account of Your Majeſties Safe Arrival and Glorious Reception at Your Royal Palace in England, with an Honourable and Happy Peace to all Europe in general, and theſe Kingdoms in particular, for which we ſhall ever adore the goodneſs of the Almighty, and ſhall not only whilſt we have a being, ſupplicate his Divine Protection over Your Sacred Perſon, and that He may give Your Majeſty a Long, Peaceful and Proſperous Reign over us, but ſhall take care that our Poſterity in all ſucceeding Ages ſhall remember the many remarkable deliverances which our ſaid Gracious God hath wrought for us, by the unparallel'd Valour, great Wiſdom, and extraordinary Conduct of Your Sacred Majeſty; The Delight of Mankind, and the glorious Reſtorer and Defender of the Liberties of Europe, which proclaims aloud Your Noble Atchievements thro' the whole Earth, to the Praiſe and Honour of their great Creator, who rais'd Your moſt Excellent Majeſty as the glorious Inſtrument for that end here on Earth, and will Crown You hereafter with Immortal Glory in Heaven, which ſhall always be the Prayers of us Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, who have already Aſſociated our ſelves, and will be ready to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence and Support of Your Majeſties Royal Perſon, Title and Government, againſt all Perſons whatſoever. In witneſs whereof we have hereunto Subſcribed our Names and fixed our Common Seale this 8th day of December, 1697.
